For Game of Thrones

It's back. The naked ambition, the accusations and obfuscations, the slash and burn tactics, and the merciless bloodletting. No, not the HBO series, but the new season of the USA version of Game of Thrones: the 2016 national election. Not the predatory gambits for the Iron Throne in Westeros, but the scorched earth politics to preside at the desk of the Oval Office in the White House.

For those who follow both versions, which makes you squirm more? For all the rest who are familiar with only the American version, you have the unfortunate winner.

Fiction always has the fallback that, after all, it's just fantasy. But the ongoing Un-Civil War between Democrats and Republicans is hard, cold reality. "Here ruining people is considered sport" is not from a script describing Westeros but from the suicide note penned by Vince Foster, President Clinton's deputy legal counsel, describing Washington. Rage now prevails as political currency. The worst debates enflame not inform, agitate and aggravate not inspire. Even at the debates' most genteel, watching two people argue for two hours is distressing.

Whether all this Strum und Drang settles down on November 9, the day after the national election, remains to be seen. But let's not get ahead of ourselves. We now face five months until then, five months sure to sharpen the rhetoric and churn the maelstrom. How then to avoid rancor, the cynicism and fear, all of which this Game of Thrones preys upon?

First, thank God for the late night media types and talents who offer a laugh as well as a rant. Thank God too for political satire websites such as The Onion that turns every candidate, even the scariest, into fodder for comedy.

But seriously, doesn't humor go only so far?

So thank God for the prayer book. Our Siddur abounds daily with prayers and meditations that speak directly to today's political conflict. Consider the following two among many.

"O Guardian of life and liberty, may our nation always merit Your protection. Teach us to give thanks for what we have by sharing it with those in need. Keep our eyes open to the wonders of creation, and alert to the care of the earth. May we never be lazy in the work of peace; may we honor those who have died in defense of our ideals. Grant our leaders wisdom and forbearance. May they govern with justice and compassion. Help us all to appreciate one another, and to respect the many ways we may serve You. May our homes be safe from affliction and strife, and our country be sound in body and spirit.

"Grant us peace, Your most precious gift, O Eternal Source of Peace, and give us the will to proclaim its message to all the people's of the earth. Bless our country that it may always be a stronghold of peace, its advocate among the nations. May contentment reign within its borders, health and happiness within our homes. Strengthen the bonds of friendship and fellowship among all the inhabitants of our world. Plant virtue in every soul, and may the love of Your Name hallow every home and every heart."

Next time America's bitter version of Game of Thrones gives you ajita, open the Siddur for relief.

A TASTE OF JUDAISM

Temple Emanuel is happy once again to offer A Taste of Judaism.

A Taste of Judaism consists of three one-hour-plus sessions. Each session is equal parts instruction and conversation, question and answer, engagement and connection. The menu includes Jewish ethics and spirituality, sprinkled with some Jewish rituals and practices. Torah is so rich, exciting the palate in diverse ways, that it will be our appetizer for our first session and dessert for our last.

A Taste of Judaism will begin at 7 pm, served at:

- Panera's meeting room in the Galleria on May 12.
- Pavilion #1 at Mt. Lebanon Main Park on May 19.
- Temple, indoors or out, depending on the weather on May 26.

May 26 will be the pièce de résistance. On the Jewish calendar, it is Lag B'Omer when it is traditional to have a Kum Zitz, "Come Sit," around a campfire. So weather permitting, we will have A Taste of Judaism "al fresco!"

Curious? Torah indeed is tantalizing. Come have a taste. RSVP with the Temple office, 412-279-7600 or templemanuel@templemanuelpgh.org. Have questions? Call Rabbi Mahler at Temple or write him, ravmayim@gmail.com.

NEW Community Garden Partner
for SHIM

This year, Temple Emanuel joins eleven other organizations in supporting SHIM and their three pantries: Bower Hill Church, St. David's Episcopal Church, St. Joan of Arc, Hamilton Church, Kindercare Mt. Lebanon, Neil Armstrong Girl Scout Troop, John McMillan Presbyterian Church, an Eagle Scout project and St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

In 2007, SHIM planted a garden on site to support their food pantry. Their ambitious goal was to replace over 50% of the food with fresh produce. Last year over 11,000 lbs. of produce was collected from eight contributing gardens. Over 600 families were served and almost half of them were employed. Each school district in the area has seen an increase in the usage of the free lunch program.

We will start with a modest space at Temple called "South Hill's Community Garden at Temple Emanuel" and hopefully will be able to expand in the future. A generous grant from South Hill Jewish Pittsburgh will make the initial garden and supplies possible. Seeds and/or plants will be provided by SHIM for chard, beans, kale, spinach and chives. The population served by SHIM also enjoys lemongrass, hibiscus, crabapples and dill.

If you already have a garden at home, consider planting a row with one of these items.

We will collect produce on Monday for a Tuesday drop off at SHIM. For those who really don't garden, volunteers are always needed at SHIM to weigh and organize the produce at the pantry. Won't you consider joining our efforts?

Do a Mitzvah! Help Homeless Families!!

Family Promise of Southwestern Pennsylvania connects homeless children and their families with a network of local congregations and dedicated staff who provide shelter, meals, hospitality and support until they are able to return to sustainable independent lives in their own homes. Over 40% of the homeless population is made up of families. Many shelters do not accept entire families and they have few options.

This community based program has a Day Center in Crafton which is their address of residence and base of operations for finding employment and permanent housing. Families have access to shower and laundry facilities, as well as childcare at the center. A fulltime caseworker is also there to provide assistance. The average stay for a family is 48 days and roughly 70% of them successfully return to sustainable housing.

The evening shelter and meals are provided by a network of host congregations. Each host congregation is assigned up to five weeks throughout the year. These host congregations are assisted by the support congregations.

Temple Emanuel is excited to support Bower Hill Community Church (BHCC) this year!

BHCC is responsible for four weeks during the year and Temple Emanuel has the following days: July 26, September 27 and December 27. We may wish to consider taking December 25 as a Mitzvah Day project. There will be training prior to the volunteer dates.

The volunteer opportunities are:

- Afternoon Van Driver (4:30 pm – 6:00 pm)
- Dinner Hosts (5:00 pm – 7:00 pm)
- Evening Hosts (7:00 pm – 9:00 pm)
- Overnight Hosts (9:00 pm – 6:30 am)
- Morning Van Driver (5:00 am- 7:00 am). The van is a fourteen passenger van.

If you are interested in helping, please contact either Peggy Kindler (pbkindler@gmail.com) or Renee Tatro (remata99@gmail.com).

From Iris Harlan, ECDC Director

A Visit to Reggio Schools Sponsored by the Jewish Early Childhood Education Initiative (JECEI)

Recently I had an opportunity to travel to Washington DC together with Julie Silverman, ECDC Educator, and a group of Educators from Pittsburgh Jewish preschools. The opportunity was one of the benefits of our JECEI grant funded by the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh and the family of Martha Klein Lottman. We visited three Reggio early childhood centers including the JCC of Greater Washington and Temple Emanuel, located in Kensington, Maryland. The schools were utterly beautiful - filled with children's art and other displays that reflected the thought and values which generated these glorious creations.

Before even stepping foot into the schools, we were fortunate to meet with Mara Bier, Senior Education Officer of Early Childhood for the Jewish Federation of Greater Washington. We learned that there are 49 Jewish early childhood programs in the Washington DC area - 30 of which are inspired by the philosophy of Reggio Emilia.

This is no mere coincidence. The "founding parents" of JECEI, who chose Reggio as the model, participate in the national leadership of Jewish early education, including at the JCC Association of North America. How exciting to learn that our own Temple Emanuel Early Childhood Development Center of the South Hills has become part of this national movement! We can all take pride in the fact that our Jewish organizations have dedicated heart, soul and dollars to advocate for high quality early childhood education. Ms. Bier has been one of those leaders for decades. Beginning in the 1990's she has led groups of teachers to the city of Reggio Emilia and has taught Reggio workshops for a national and international forum. We are fortunate to have brilliant leadership in our region with Carolyn Linder who holds the corresponding position at the Jewish Federation of Greater Pittsburgh.

We believe that education is a reciprocal process where teachers set the stage by engaging children in discovery and respond to the multiple voices in the classroom. The collaborative process of research is continual and the child is a capable partner. This is a predisposition of both Jewish education and Reggio. As said by Loris Malaguzzi, the founder of the Reggio Emilia philosophy, "Learning and teaching do not stand on opposite banks and just watch the river flow by; instead they should embark together on a journey down the water. Through an active, reciprocal exchange, teaching can strengthen learning how to learn."

We are fortunate to be on this journey with our Jewish community both at home and across the nation.

Miryam's Place Program

Miryam's Place offers a safe sanctuary, nutritious meals, and other services to homeless women and those at-risk of homelessness. Miryam's Place offers lunch and dinner to approximately 40 women, seven days a week. For several years various groups of Temple Emanuel members have been providing a meal to Miryam's each month.

The TERMS group (Temple Emanuel Retirees in Mitzvah Service) provided dinner for Miryam's Place on April 8.

David and Sarah Levinthal and their family provided dinner for Miryam's Place on April 30.

These thoughtful donations are greatly appreciated.

Please contact Carol Rose (rosece428@comcast.net) if your family or Temple circle of friends wishes to prepare and donate a meal.

As usual, the Library is a busy place. I have been sorting a lot of used donated books. People have been cleaning out their book collections, and giving them to our Temple Library. Please remember that we cannot accept books that have been in your basement for years and smell of dampness! They must be in excellent condition and of course, we reserve the right to distribute them accordingly, i.e. to teachers, congregants, and resale and recycling. If you would like to e-mail a list of what you own, I may be able to tell you whether we already have a particular book in the Library. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

The kindergarten enrichment class on a Thursday afternoon enjoyed a visit with our congregant Ayn Apelman who presented a lovely program about being blind. She read the Braille version of the book, Hailstones and Halibut Bones by Mary O'Neill. This book describes colors, and was read at our "Poetry and Tea" event in February by a Concordia resident. Ayn was able to get it from the Braille Library in Philadelphia, and I checked it out of Mt. Lebanon Library. Their teacher, Sue Melcher showed the children the pictures while Ayn read it to them. Then the children touched the bumpy Braille letters. It was a wonderful lesson. We hope to make this an annual experience.

"Jewish Soldiers in Blue and Gray"

86 minutes, color

Directed by Jonathan Gruber

As seen on Public Television Commemorating the 150th Anniversary of the American Civil War

Brother against brother, Jew against Jew, 10,000 Jewish soldiers fought in the nation's deadliest war, in numbers proportionally higher than other American groups.

Alliances during the War Between the States split the Jewish community as deeply as it did the nation at large: some prominent Jews, including Jewish slave owners, cited the Torah to justify slavery, while others were leaders in the abolitionist movement or established their synagogues as stops on the Underground Railroad.

Jewish Soldiers in Blue & Gray explores the little known history of the Civil War Jews who fought on both sides of the battlefield--7,000 for the Union and 3,000 for the Confederacy.

It's Simple To Purchase Yahrzeit Plaques

In keeping with Jewish tradition, we observe the anniversary of a loved one's death by saying Kaddish. A Yahrzeit Plaque is a permanent reminder of the place they held in our lives. By purchasing a Yahrzeit Plaque, Kaddish will always be said at Temple Emanuel on the anniversary of their death.

The Yahrzeit Plaques are displayed throughout the year in the Sanctuary. During the Shabbat that the Yahrzeit is observed, the plaque is moved under the eternal light.

The contribution to memorialize your loved one with a Yahrzeit Plaque is $360. Please attach your check to the form below if you would like to order a plaque.

You will be notified when the plaque is received. Please call Lori at the Temple office if you have any questions, 412.279.7600.

“THE WALL OF REMEMBRANCE”

Each of the four panels contains dedicatory bronze plaques reminiscent of the petitionary notes left by visitors to Jerusalem's Western Wall. Memorial plaques intermingle with honorials. Inscriptions honor parents, children and grandchildren, recording births, b'nei mitzvot, confirmations and weddings. An ever increasing number of plaques have been purchased by groups of friends and family members to honor a special birthday or anniversary, or to memorialize a beloved friend or relative.

Plaques are available in three sizes: 1" x 3" for $360; 3" x 4" for $750; and 4" x 5" for $1500 payable in monthly installments. For further information and/or to select the plaque of your choice call the Temple office. 412.279.7600.
