From Rabbi Aaron Meyer

Sovereign of the universe, In awe and humility I have come to stand before You to pray with Your people Israel and on their behalf. Who is fit for such a task?* I can remember listening to my grandfather weep as he recited the inspiration for this prayer before leading the Sharon, PA community in worship. Yamim Nora'im, the name we use for the days between Rosh HaShana and Yom Kippur, can be translated as either the Days of Awe or the Days of Fear; and, when thinking about our transgressions over the past year, we have little doubt which is more accurate. With awe and fear intermingled, and with great humility, I join Rabbi Locketz in the leadership of this community at a spiritually auspicious time.

Yet You are present to us whenever our voices rise in praise. In Your great mercy, have compassion on me and on us all. Compassion — care, love, and leniency — is a tender mercy, particularly during a period of transition. Transitions always evoke feelings of loss and feelings of excitement, feelings that will be amplified in this sacred season. We are grateful for Rabbi Mahler's 38 years of leadership in this community, and we embrace our final year with Dr. Charles Cohen as our cantorial soloist. Both have given so much to strengthen and enrich Temple Emanuel, heightening our feelings of loss, yet we hold abundant hope and excitement for the future. We know that engagement with synagogues is becoming increasingly episodic and transactional, and it is increasingly clear that synagogues can no longer count on 'doing what they've always done to get what they've always got.' Together we must vision and plan for the synagogue of tomorrow while discerning and embracing the highest values of today. It is a process that will come with frustration, missteps, and ultimately the continuity and viability of our sacred community; we ask God's compassion — care, love, and leniency — on us all.

Let my congregation not falter on my account, nor I on theirs. Guide the lips of those who lead Your people in worship. High Holy Day sermons offer rabbis an important public pulpit from which to express their highest values and aspirations, always in concert with the perceived needs and concerns of their community. In my first year at Temple Emanuel, I suspect — and hope — that there will be considered scrutiny of my offerings. On Erev Rosh HaShana, I will strive to bring alive the words of our ancient tradition, turning them and turning them again to find new guidance and meaning in our day; a style similar to what you might expect during Shabbat worship. On Rosh Hashanah morning, I will present for your consideration a vision for Temple Emanuel's future as a vibrant wellspring of progressive Jewish life in the South Hills. We will all be enriched by Rabbi Locketz's erudition during Kol Nidre services, and on Yom Kippur morning I will speak to a pressing concern from our contemporary world that keeps me awake at night and hinders the full expression of our Jewish values in America.

Strengthen our faith and purify our thoughts, and let Your love draw a veil over all our failings. So may our prayers ascend this day to the throne of Your glory. One of my favorite teachings related to the High Holy Days is that of each human being connected to God by a rope. When that rope breaks, and is later fixed with a knot, we become even closer to our God than before. Our errors, our mistakes, and our missteps, when properly mended, allow us to grow. May our failings be fewer and our strength of faith greater as I begin my rabbinate at Temple Emanuel and together we usher in the year 5780.

L'shanah Tovah — For a sweet, healthy, and happy New Year.

* This prayer, a meditation which captures our sense of inadequacy before God, precedes the haunting melody of Kol Nidre on Yom Kippur Evening.

Upcoming Program with Rabbi Meyer

On September 17, Israelis go back to the voting booth to again try to select the 22nd Knesset. It is hard to overstate how much is at stake: whether Benjamin Netanyahu goes to the Prime Minister's residence or to prison; whether Israel begins a course of annexing the West Bank or halting further construction; whether Israel's political left can make a stand before changing demographics curtail any possibility of relevancy. Join Rabbi Meyer for two sessions to help interpret this upcoming election cycle:

President's Message

From David Weisberg

Happy New Year! May 5780 be sweet and prosperous for all! This next year will be an exciting time. We are thrilled that our new Senior Rabbi, Aaron Meyer has joined us here at Temple Emanuel and has hit the ground running. I would also like to welcome Emily and their beautiful children to the South Hills of Pittsburgh. Rabbi Aaron has been meeting many of us both individually and in groups. He will continue to become entrenched in the rhythm of the synagogue. Rabbi Aaron will help Temple Emanuel become part of the regular heartbeat of each of us as congregants.

Please join me for the Installation Weekend of Rabbi Aaron Meyer on Friday September 13 plus the afternoon and evening events of September 14. I, like many of you, have never been to a rabbinic installation. It is a meaningful event in any congregation's history. It is a time to observe and celebrate the transition of spiritual leadership. We are now in a new chapter in the life of Temple Emanuel that is being written while we are building on our past.

We have been planning for this during the last two and a half years. In December 2016, Rabbi Mahler announced to the congregation that he would be retiring in June 2018. We celebrated and honored Rabbi Mahler during that time and helped prepare for our next steps including deciding to move ahead with an Interim Rabbi for one year. Rabbi Donald Rossoff helped our congregation immensely during this past interim year.

We are continuing to build on our strengths. The Board of Trustees this past Spring set the stage for the next chapter, reviewing the article "Sacred Strategies: Transforming Synagogues from Functional to Visionary." In addition, both the Board of Trustees and congregation will continue to build on past feedback including the Wish Poem of 2014 and the Congregational Survey and Focus Groups from spring 2018. There will be upcoming opportunities for each of you to participate as we rocket to our future. It is my goal that by the end of this year, Temple Emanuel will have a revised mission and vision statement.

We will focus on connections with each other, Temple Emanuel, our Jewish community and Greater Pittsburgh. These are exciting times. I look forward to you joining me at the High Holidays. Shana Tova!

Director of Education

Thriving Jewishly

What would Jewish education look like if its purpose was to ensure that Jewish tradition empowers students to thrive in today's world?

That is the question being asked in educational communities throughout the Jewish world. I was fortunate to attend a conference sponsored by the Jewish Education Project (<https://www.jewishedproject.org/>) at the end of May that addressed this topic. Titled "The Why & How of Thriving in Jewish Education" it was an incredible opportunity to think about what is working in Jewish education and...what is not. At the core of the discussion is rethinking religious education, changing from pedagogies that encourage 'surviving' to those that create the right environment for 'thriving.'

It is an important reframing of the way we teach. Over the summer I met with the faculty in small groups to try to understand how this could play out in the Torah Center, what it means to thrive Jewishly, and how we can create the environment to ensure that our students do. First, we had to understand the difference between 'surviving' and 'thriving.' In a Jewish context, 'surviving' is transmitting tradition in an attempt to ensure the Jewish future. [Think: Jewish Continuity, the buzzword of Jewish education when many of us were in religious school]. The approach of 'surviving' is to teach text, history, language and prayer – all because these are the things students ought to know in order to understand and perpetuate the type of Jewish life practiced in their (our!) community. Jewish education taught this way has a historical orientation; the past teaches us how to be in the future.

'Thriving' on the other hand, educates for the present, seeking to engage the student while helping to create connection and meaning. In essence, 'thriving' is about relevancy to the learner. It is a call to us educators to find a way to relate to our traditions in a modern, developmentally appropriate and meaningful way, one that can be put into immediate use.

My sense that the pedagogy of 'survival' didn't work as well as intended was confirmed at the conference. There I learned from my colleagues what I already knew; for many Jews, especially those who do not live in traditional communities, much of the content taught as part of their Jewish education seems irrelevant and completely disconnected from their lives.

This disconnect suggests that the methodology of 'surviving' disenfranchises and alienates. The Jewish Education Project posits that the approach of 'thriving' does the opposite. It has the power to create meaning and relevancy that will lead to lifelong Jewish communal engagement and connection.

So what does this mean for us?

The Torah Center faculty and I are excited about making our students 'thrive.' We are busy rethinking the way we teach and interact with our students. For example, when Kindergarten learns about Shabbat, they will learn about the rituals of lighting the candles, blessing the wine and Challah. They will also explore the meaning of the word Shabbat, 'to rest' and how they can create Shabbat moments in their own lives. The focus will be on the essence of Shabbat – how taking time to rest and slow down can enrich our lives. In this way, Shabbat becomes a sort of mindfulness technique, an opportunity for even our youngest students to learn how to take time for themselves or with family to celebrate Shabbat – with or without the rituals – in a meaningful way.

Another example: when 2nd grade learns about Creation, they will talk about what was created on each of the six days. They will discuss how God created (by speaking) and how when God completed the work, God rested and enjoyed the fruits of God's labors. They will also talk about the act of creating, how they create in their own lives. Do they plan things out? Do they simply plunge into the work? Do they seek help or do it alone? We sometimes look at the Creation story as an explanation for Shabbat, understanding the telling as the need to take a day of rest when the work of the week is done. But – can we also understand Creation as a reminder that we can be like God in another way – as a creator? We can encourage creativity as being yet another way that we are created in God's image. We can also surmise that when we create, the work we do is holy. Through sharing the ways they create, students will understand that they have much to offer.

These examples provide a just a glimpse into how we hope to adapt this new approach to the classroom. To me it is abundantly clear that our success will depend not only on skill acquisition and knowledge mastery but also our ability to help our students to thrive by relating what they learn to their own lives.

As the year begins, there will be much to share. Look for recaps of daily discussions and follow up questions to continue the conversation at home. Check out the forthcoming opportunities to engage online and in person with teachers and other parents. Take advantage of the adult learning sessions that will begin after the High Holidays and learn how you can thrive too.

I look forward to thriving together.

TASHLICH and TACOS

Monday, September 30th 4:30 pm

Join us at Canonsburg Lake (just off Rt. 19 South at McDowell Lane) for Tashlich. We'll sing songs and recite the Tashlich prayers as we symbolically cast our sins into the water (with bread crumbs), leave our old shortcomings behind, and start the New Year with a clean slate. After the service we'll gather at Mad Mex Lakeside to socialize and enjoy a buffet of light appetizers and mini-fish tacos.

While EVERYONE is welcome to join us at the lake for the service, space at Mad Mex is limited to 150 people.

Please RSVP to 412.279.7600 by September 20th or at www.templeemanuelpgh.org/event/tashlich2019 if you plan to come to Mad Mex. This year, the cost is $5/adult (ages 16+); children are still free!

HIGH HOLY DAY BABYSITTING REGISTRATION REQUIRED

The number of babysitters hired is based on the confirmed number of children registered. Confirmed registration is required for admittance to babysitting by September 20th. No exceptions will be made.

Before Building Your Sukkah

READER:

Eternal God, let Your presence dwell among us, and let us abide always in the shelter of Your peace. Be with us on this festival of Sukkot, as with love and awe we celebrate Your goodness to all the living.

ALL:

We build this Sukkah with joy and gratitude for the gift of life and for all that sustains our bodies and enriches our spirits.

Each Day, Upon Entering Your Sukkah

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ לָשֵׁב בַּסֻּכָּה.

Baruch Ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, asher kid'shanu b'mitzvotav, v'tzivanu lei-sheiv ba-su-kkah.

Blessed are You, O Lord, our God, Ruler of the Universe, who has made us holy with mitzvot and commanded us to dwell in the sukkah.

On the first day:

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, שֶׁהֲחִינּוּ, וְקִיְּמָנוּ, וְהִגִּיעָנוּ לַזְּמַן הַזֶּה.

Baruch Ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, sheh-heh-cheh-ya-nu, v'ki-y'manu, v'higi-anu la-z'man ha-zeh.

We praise You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and for enabling us to reach this Festival of Sukkot, the Season of our Rejoicing. Amen.

Fulfilling the Mitzvah of the Lulav

READER:

I take this Lulav and Etrog, in remembrance of these words of Torah: "On the first day, take for yourselves the fruit of a goodly tree, branches of palms, leaves of the myrtle and willows of the brook." With these four species I reach out to the Source of all life, the Sovereign of all Creation. Let the graciousness of our Eternal God be with us, and may our work have lasting value.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, אֲשֶׁר קִדְּשָׁנוּ בְּמִצְוֹתָיו וְצִוָּנוּ עַל נְטִילַת לולָב.

Blessed are You, O Lord, our God, Ruler of the Universe, who has made us holy with mitzvot and commanded us to fulfill the mitzvah of the lulav.

Before Eating in Your Sukkah

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, אֱלֹהֵינוּ מֶלֶךְ הָעוֹלָם, בּוֹרֵא פְּרֵי הַגֶּפֶן.

Baruch Ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha-olam, borei pri ha-gafen.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, who created the fruit of the vine.

בְּרוּךְ אַתָּה יְיָ, אֱלֹהֵינוּ דְּמִלְּךָ הָעוֹלָם, הַמוֹצִיא לֶחֶם מִן הָאָרֶץ.

Blessed are You, O Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, who brings forth our bread from the earth.

From the Worship Committee

We asked. You answered. We listened!

Recently, a large number of congregants responded to a Friday Night Service Times survey put out by Temple Emanuel's Worship Committee. As a result of your responses, the Worship Committee would like to announce that beginning September 13, Friday night services will be at 7:00 pm each week. Our hope is that a consistent time for services will lead to less confusion and the 7:00 pm start will allow more people to attend services after work. See you on Shabbat!

TEMPLE NEWS: Beginning with this issue, the Bulletin will now be published on a bi-monthly basis. The next issue will be mailed at the end of October. We'll always keep you updated via our e-blasts and award-winning website – www.templeemanuelpgh.org

Please Be In Touch With Our Rabbis

Temple's rabbis, Aaron Meyer and Jessica Locketz, cherish every opportunity to connect in pastoral relationship. Unfortunately, tightening of HIPAA law means that we do not know when congregants are hospitalized or experiencing struggle without your help. Please contact us with how we can best support you, your family, and your friends with personal calls, pastoral visits in-home or hospital, ongoing spiritual and emotional care, and more.

Rabbi Meyer and Rabbi Locketz are available — in times of joy as well as times of sadness — to offer a listening ear, caring heart, and rabbinic guidance. We would love to know when babies are born, engagements are celebrated, or you experience a loss in your family so that we might respond appropriately. Please don't hesitate to reach out!

Temple Emanuel Retirees in Mitzvah Service

Come to TERMS with your ideas, skills & passions

It's a good time to get involved!

TERMS meets the 3rd Friday of the month at 10 am

ALL WELCOME

Now that you, as a retiree, can truly call your time your own, this may be an ideal opportunity to make a valuable contribution to your Temple community and to yourself.

Temple Emanuel's year-round Mitzvah program (TERMS) is operated by the retirees, and nearly retired, men and women of Temple Emanuel. This successful team has participated in many highlights at Temple which were of our choosing.

If you are a Temple Emanuel member who is retired or contemplating retirement in the next year and would like to experience retirement on your own TERMS, please contact Roger Liss at arre11@comcast.net. Each new member enriches us, and increases our capacity to perform good deeds on behalf of the Temple Emanuel family. Do it today, while you are thinking about it.

Keep the Eternal Light Burning

Temple Emanuel is proud to participate in the Life and Legacy program created by the Harold Grinspoon Foundation for just this purpose— to establish a permanent source of security for the Jews of America.

While the Legacy commitment is made today, it is usually not funded from current assets but can be deferred to the future. The goal of this program is to endow Temple's future by having congregants make Legacy gifts to Temple in their wills, life insurance policies or retirement accounts. Members of all ages can participate in this program and Legacy gifts of any size are welcome.

Legacy gifts to Temple Emanuel become part of our permanent endowment fund. The principal of these gifts is invested and kept intact, providing an annual income stream. Only the interest earned is used on an annual basis to fund the future of Temple Emanuel.

A Legacy gift to Temple Emanuel keeps on giving from one generation to the next... It offers our future generations of Jews a place to spiritually and socially enrich their lives with "meaning and purpose, belonging and blessing...the richness of our tradition and the wisdom it offers," [Dr. Ron Wolfson, "Relational Judaism"].

If you'd like to know how you can create a future gift, a lasting legacy to nurture and provide continuity of Jewish life in the South Hills of Pittsburgh, please contact Leslie Hoffman, Executive Director, at: lhoffman@templeemanuelpgh.org, 412.279.7600 or, any of our Legacy Team Members: Michael Bleier, Lynn Rubin, Matt Schwartz, Linda Scott and David Weisberg.

A Walk on the Moon September 23 @ 1:00 pm

R 1999 1hr 47min Romance/Drama

It is the summer of 1969. Everyone seems to be waiting for Neil Armstrong to walk on the moon. The Vietnam War is going on, the flower children abound, and there is a big concert at Woodstock. Teenager Alison and her family are on vacation in a holiday camp for Jewish families not far from Woodstock. Pearl, the mother, is young and attractive, but defeated by life. Marty, the father, is absent because he is busy at the television repair company where he works.

One day a charming salesman of clothes and knick-knacks arrives at camp. Pearl falls in love with him and they live an intense life of love and passion, ending with the adventure of going to Woodstock where Alison and her first boyfriend have also gone.

See what happens with Alison and her father. Can he put back the pieces of a floundering marriage?

Sarah's Key

October 28 @ 1:00 pm

PG-13 2010 1hr 42 min War Drama

One of the darkest moments in French history occurred in 1942 Paris when French officials rounded up over 10,000 Jews and placed them in local camps. Eventually over 8,000 were sent off to German concentration camps. As 10-year old Sarah and her family are being arrested, she hides her younger brother in a closet. After realizing she will not be allowed to go home, Sarah does whatever she can to get back to her brother.

In 2009, a journalist named Julia is on assignment to write a story on the deported Jews in 1942. When she moves into her father-in-law's childhood apartment, she realizes it once belonged to the Strazynski family and their daughter Sarah. She becomes obsessed by Sarah's life and to find the fate of this little girl.

MIRYAM'S PLACE

The Mercy Health System provides the basis for both Miryam's and for Bethlehem Haven - services for homeless women with varying social and health needs. For many years now various Temple groups and families have prepared meals for the ladies at Miryam's. A recent re-adjustment of services now provides for 28 ladies at Miryam's.

In early July, Stacy Tafeen sent a large lasagna to Miryam's.

During the week of July 14, Peter Freed made enough fried chicken for all the ladies at Miryam's and brought it down to them thinking that they would keep it in their freezer for a future date. As it turned out, Miryam's did not have a dinner plan for that evening, so the donation was very timely. It was the basis of their dinner and was very much appreciated by all the ladies.

On July 24, Temple's TERMS group brought a meal of meat loaf, corn on the cob, coleslaw, and cookies to Miryam's. The weather was perfect for this really nice summer meal.

If you are interested in providing a meal for Miryam's, please call Carol Rose at 412-279-2771. She can provide you with information on the planning and scheduling process and if necessary can deliver the meal for you.

CASH, CHECKS OR AUTOMATIC DEBITS

Fundraising dollars are a key component of Temple's operating budget. When you buy Giant Eagle gift cards through our office, Temple receives 5% of every dollar spent. Tell us the amount you'd like to buy each month ($50 & $100 cards are available) and how you'd like to pay. We accept cash and checks or can set you up for automatic debits (ACH). And, we'll even mail the cards to you. If a monthly plan isn't right for you, we of course encourage you to stop in the office any time and we'll be happy to help you.

Use the cards to pay for groceries, gas at GetGo, prescriptions and dry cleaning, and even beer at Market District! And, you can use them to buy hundreds of other gift cards too. Don't forget you will receive fuel perks when you use your cards. With the holidays and home-improvement projects just around the corner, it's the perfect time to stock up!

Please contact the office or Leslie Hoffman, Executive Director, for more information and to sign up for automatic debits and delivery. THANK YOU IN ADVANCE FOR YOUR PARTICIPATION IN THIS EASIEST OF FUNDRAISERS!

SUNDAY BOWLING

Looking for something to do Sunday mornings before the Steelers game or before the Pirates Sunday games? Consider joining your fellow South Hills Jewish neighbors at the Sports Haven Bowling Lanes in Bridgeville.

For the past 30+ years there has been an informal B'nai B'rith bowling group meeting at the Sports Haven Bowling Lanes from 9:30 am Sunday morning until about 11:30 am. All that is required is a desire to try your hand at bowling with a bunch of your fellow Jewish neighbors. It is open to men and women. Also, you do not have to be a B'nai B'rith member.

You will be placed on a team of four bowlers (family and friends can bowl together). The season runs in two sessions: from early September to mid-December and from early January to mid-April. After each season there is an informal dinner when awards are handed out to participants - you don't have to be a great bowler to win one of the cash awards.

Why not join your fellow Jewish neighbors and Go Bowling.

If interested, please contact Alex Kindler at akindler@h2rcpa.com.

Leave your message upon the Western Wall (Anytime Gift Idea)

The Wall of Remembrance relief sculpture, an impressionistic rendering of Jerusalem's Western Wall, was dedicated in May 1993, through the generosity of Temple Emanuel Brotherhood; the children and grandchildren of Lillian and Hyman Freeman; Sandra Gitelman and her daughters, Joan and Leslie, in memory of Melvin B. Gitelman; and Barbara and Jim Goldman in honor of their aunt, Frances Rafael.

Conceived in four sections that complement the stained glass windows with which they alternate in our upstairs entryway, this innovative design, by Pittsburgh's New Guild Art and Design Studio artists David Korn and David Miriello, was created to commemorate the meaningful events and people that touch the lives of our Temple family.

Each of the four panels contains dedicatory bronze plaques reminiscent of the petitionary notes left by visitors to Jerusalem's Western Wall. Memorial plaques intermingle with honorials. Inscriptions honor parents, children and grandchildren, recording births, b'nai mitzvot, confirmations and weddings. An ever increasing number of plaques have been purchased by groups of friends and family members to honor a special birthday or anniversary, or to memorialize a beloved friend or relative.

Plaques are available in three sizes: 1" x 3" for $360; 3" x 4" for $750; and 4" x 5" for $1500 payable in monthly installments. For further information and/or to select the plaque of your choice call the Temple office, 412.279.7600.

The next time you walk through the entryway, look at the Western Wall and read the beautiful inscriptions. Consider purchasing a plaque. Leaving your message on the Wall in a loving tribute, honors and remembers while generating greatly needed and much appreciated revenue for Temple.

CIRCLES OF GIVING

Come and Get It!

The new Temple Directory will be distributed at Rabbi Aaron Meyer's Installation on Friday, September 13th. This directory will have members' addresses, phone numbers and emails. Along with that comes the New Year Greetings from our member families. It also includes a section with information about the board and the staff, upcoming dates to remember, and the sponsors that we appreciate who make this handout possible.

If you are unable to pick one up at that time, please stop in Temple's office to get your directory during business hours. The office is open Mondays through Thursdays from 8:00 am to 5:00 pm and Fridays from 8:00 am to 3:00 pm.

Mission to Israel for one adult member of Temple who requires financial assistance.

It's Simple to Purchase
Yahrzeit Plaques

In keeping with Jewish tradition, we observe the anniversary of a loved one's death by saying Kaddish. A Yahrzeit Plaque is a permanent reminder of the place they held in our lives. By purchasing a Yahrzeit Plaque, Kaddish will always be said at Temple Emanuel on the anniversary of their death.

The Yahrzeit Plaques are displayed throughout the year in the Sanctuary. During the Shabbat that the Yahrzeit is observed, the plaque is moved under the eternal light.

The contribution to memorialize your loved one with a Yahrzeit Plaque is $360. Please attach your check to the form below if you would like to order a plaque.

You will be notified when the plaque is received. Please call Lori at the Temple office if you have any questions at 412.279.7600.

Did you know that blood donations in our area have decreased by 50% in the past 10 years? In 2017, donors gave only 47% of the blood needed by area hospitals, forcing Vitalant (formerly Central Blood Bank) to import the other 53% from blood centers outside of our community. The greater Pittsburgh area needs an average of 600 donors per day to meet patient needs.
