VOLUNTEERS BUILDING COMMUNITY

We have some amazing volunteers leading Kulanu groups this spring, as congregants are getting to know one another and bonding over shared interests.

Congregants interested in trying out local restaurants with new friends have met, including a recent group's visit to Laziz Lebanese Cuisine.

Crafters are meeting twice a month to work on their craft projects together, chat, and share delicious snacks.

Wine aficionados are planning their next meetup at Temple Emanuel to learn from one of Pennsylvania's leading wine experts and enjoy a wine tasting.

The Pittsburgh sightseeing group met in late February to discuss outings they'll start taking as the weather continues to become nicer.

Board game players are preparing for their next night of fun and games together as well!

There are so many opportunities for community-building here at Temple Emanuel, and many of them are being led by amazing volunteers. I'd like to extend a huge thank you to these volunteers!

If you'd like to join any of the previously mentioned groups, please email smangan@templemanuelpgh.org for more information.

Volunteers from Temple Emanuel helped at the South Hills community Purim Carnival held at Beth El last Sunday. Temple Emanuel, Beth El, PJ Library, and the JCC teamed up to bring this event to South Hills families!

We are always collecting non-perishable food donations for SHIM in the boxes beside the
