A MESSAGE FROM RABBI AARON MEYER

There exists within the Reform Movement several generations of Jews who likely cannot read the following words without breaking into song:

"Let us adore the ever living God, and render praise unto Him who spread out the heavens and established the earth, whose glory is revealed in the heavens, above, and whose greatness is manifest throughout world. He is our God; there is none else. We bow the head in reverence and worship the King of Kings, the Holy One, praised be He!"

If you grew up with the Union Prayer Book, published in 1895 (or the Revised Union Prayer Book of 1918, or the Newly Revised Union Prayer Book of 1940) — the little one that would fit in the palm of your hand — **this** is the version of Aleinu L'shabei'ach with which you are likely most familiar. Its poetic imagery and flowery language capture the imagination in ways that disguise the conceptually-problematic source text. In a more traditional siddur, the original text of Aleinu L'shabei'ach extols the distinctiveness of the Jewish community through a supersessionism and superiority that makes us squirm:

"It is our obligation to praise the Master of all, to ascribe greatness to the Creator of the [world in the] beginning; that He has not made us like the nations of the lands, and has not positioned us like the families of the earth; that He has not assigned our portion like theirs, nor our lot like that of all their multitudes. For they prostrate themselves to vanity and nothingness, and pray to a god that cannot deliver."

Eeek, right? From the earliest strata of Reform Judaism, our spiritual ancestors agreed. The initial Reform prayer books actually omitted this declaration from the service entirely. Isaac Mayer Wise then attempted an artful change to the Hebrew in the mid-1800's that lasted for two generations before "Let us Adore" unified the America Reform movement. Wise's text happens to be preserved in our contemporary Mishkan T'filah siddur and is worth revisiting for today's world.

Beginning in January, Cantor Kalix and I are going to make a concerted effort to include the second paragraph of Aleinu L'shabei'ach, beginning She'hu Noteh Shamayim, to each service, and in February we will study together a new direction for this prayer. Join us at 7:00pm on these special Friday nights — in the Beit HaT'filah and online — to learn more about the history and evolving significance of this prayer as we continue to exemplify that the "reform" in "Reform Movement" is a verb rather than a noun.

VISION FOR THE FUTURE: A MORE FLEXIBLE AND INCLUSIVE TEMPLE EMANUEL

For over a year Outside Angle and our Steering Committee have been hard at work developing a one-of-a-kind vision for Temple's future, and we are excited to share the following overview with you.

Hundreds of families are finding value in Temple Emanuel as a community and as a religious home. These families, like the community around us, are growing in their diversity of needs and interests. We have an opportunity to increase engagement in our programs and services by expanding access, both real and perceived. At the same time, we must also address declining interest in membership as it is currently defined, as well as our increasing costs.

To respond to both, we must seek to increase Temple's vibrancy as well as its financial solvency. The only viable path to do so requires a more flexible and inclusive organizational structure. This will require three fundamental shifts in how Membership, Governance, and Individual Giving function at Temple Emanuel:

- Make it easier to feel belonging at Temple by making membership more accessible and optional
- Position Temple to operate more nimbly and responsively, centered on its mission by shifting its structure to one that is staff-led
- Call on individuals to help us achieve solvency by contributing in accordance with the alignment between their individual values, the mission of Temple, and the actual costs to serve the community

At the core of these shifts is a transition toward centering the evolving, diverse needs of the Temple community and away from the traditional approach of expecting those connected to Temple to fit within the structure of the institution.

The future of Temple Emanuel requires a shift toward centering the community and its diverse, evolving needs.

We are looking forward to engaging with you, our Temple Emanuel community, in conversations over the next several months, as we share more details of these changes that will bring Temple Emanuel into the future. If you'd like to begin those conversations now, please reach out to any of the following Steering Committee members. We are eager to talk more about the future of Temple Emanuel.

A MESSAGE FROM CANTOR KALIX JACOBSON

It has been an exciting time musically here at Temple Emanuel! Over the past few months, the Temple Emanuel Choir has come back together in full force to put on three different performances: one at my installation concert in October and two Chanukah performances. It has been a lot of fun preparing for and singing at these events, and I am looking forward to many more performances where the choir will get to sing together.

As I am sure you all can guess, singing has been an important part of my life in its entirety. I come from a singing family, and cut my teeth in the music world in middle and high school choir. Long before I wanted to be a cantor, I dreamed of being a high school choir teacher. And while that is not exactly what I am doing now, I am thrilled to be in a position to forge choral connections here at Temple.

So what's next for the Temple Emanuel Choir? Get out your Hamantaschen, because Purim is just around the corner! I am currently in the process of writing our Purim Schpiel, and I will need the help of our choir to be the musical support. There is more information to come about the Schpiel, so stay tuned!

If you are unavailable to perform at Purim, please don't worry! There will be many more musical opportunities to come. Currently, members of the choir choose whether or not to participate in an upcoming event by taking into account their own life schedules and availability. That is to say, we want you to be part of our choir family whenever you are available, and will understand when life gets in the way!

Our choir is comprised of people with varying musical background, ranging from long time singers to complete beginners, from sheet music wizards to those unable to read music. The purpose of the group is to have a fun and engaging time together while making music we all enjoy. There is no age restriction on the choir, and there are no prerequisites regarding skill or ability in order to join.

Do you like to sing? Would you like opportunities to gather with musicians of all ages and backgrounds at Temple? Are you interested in participating in the fantastic musical programming that we put on? If you are interested in joining our choir, or if you'd like more information, please reach out to Cantor Kalix at kjacobson@templemanuelpgh.org. We'd love to have you sing with us!

Wishing you a happy secular new year!

Marlee Lyons, Executive Director

2023 Chanukah Dinner

From Kate Louik – ECDC Director

The end of the calendar year gives us the opportunity to reflect. Over the past four months of the 2023-2024 school year, we have worked alongside the children as they investigated, explored, and discovered. As a Reggio Emilia-inspired program, we are charged to meet the developmental needs of the children while following their lead—engaging with their interests and wonderings. If you haven't had the chance lately, I encourage you to visit the ECDC hallways and admire the bulletin board displays our educators put together to reflect the work being done in their classrooms. The learning may look different class to class, but this diversity is reflective of the way our educators align their offerings to the unique individuals in their classrooms.

As we look ahead to 2024, I am filled with excitement about what is to come for the children at ECDC. I may not know exactly what path their class will follow, but I know it will be filled with the joy of learning.

Registration for School Year 2024-2025 opens in February 2024. Are you or someone you know interested in joining our ECDC family? I'd love to talk more! Email klouik@templeemanuelpgh.org or call 412-279-7687.

TORAH CENTER | UPDATE

From Steph McFerron – Torah Center Director

Project-based learning is loosely defined as a teaching method where students learn through active engagement in the real world on meaningful projects. From our youngest to oldest of learners in Torah Center - this teaching method has reigned supreme over the last several months! I am in awe at what our students have accomplished at their individual grade levels as well as collectively. Here are just a few examples of what we have been up to!

Our 4th graders and PreK friends crafted cards and packaged cookies to send to the Jewish Soldier Project - an organization that supports our nation's Jewish military, whether they are stationed stateside or overseas.

Our 1st graders collected cooking oils for SHIM, tying in the Chanukah theme with their mitzvot.

Our 7th graders created a youth group event for those in Kindergarten through 6th grade; incorporating community building, social action, and leading them in Havdalah.

Our 6th graders researched different charitable organizations, invited them to Temple for our annual mitzvah mall, and partnered with each organization's representative to help educate all of our students about the organizations that exist in our broader community.

I am so grateful to our students, our families for their unwavering support, and to our faculty for creating learning that will last a lifetime. Wishing you and yours a wonderful 2024. I am so excited to see what this next year will bring.

WINTER | PROGRAMMING AT TEMPLE EMANUEL

Temple Emanuel Grandparents Group

Monthly Saturday Meetings at 1:30 pm

Are you a grandparent or grandfriend? Whether you are Jewish or not, local or far, you are welcome to join us for a Temple Emanuel Grandparents Group, meeting monthly!

We hope that this group facilitates connections and conversations between grandparents and grandfriends with connections to Judaism, either through their own experiences or through the experiences of their children and grandchildren. We will meet once a month on a Saturday afternoon in person and over Zoom, and we will encourage further connection-building through activities between meetings.

Together we will discuss topics like holidays, life cycle events, and opportunities to connect with your grandchildren. We will discuss the “joys and oys” of grandparenting and provide a safe space to ask questions, learn from one another, and celebrate each other’s journeys.

Temple Emanuel’s Program and Volunteer Coordinator Sarah Mangan will facilitate group gatherings and will welcome additional presenters to speak on various topics, including Rabbi Aaron Meyer, Cantor Kalix Jacobson, and other professionals in the field.

You do not need to be a member of Temple Emanuel to join us! This group is open to people from all backgrounds to learn more about Judaism and explore what their relationships to Judaism are now that they are grandparents or grandfriends.

Our winter meetings will be on January 27th, February 10th, and March 9th.

Are you interested in joining us or learning more? Contact Sarah Mangan.

Adult B’nei Mitzvah Course

Every 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month, starting January 14, 2024, from 1:30 to 3:00 pm

Are you interested in learning more about the prayers of Jewish tradition, both meaning and mechanics?

Are you looking for ways to practice Hebrew in a practical setting?

Do you want to learn more about the study of Torah and how it is chanted?

Consider pursuing Adult B’nei Mitzvah with Temple Emanuel!

All Temple members who have not yet participated in the ritual of Bar, Bat, or Bet (an inclusive term for those who prefer non-gendered language) Mitzvah are eligible and encouraged to join us. Perhaps you weren’t ready or weren’t given the opportunity as a young person? Maybe you joined the Jewish community later in life and are now ready? Perhaps you wish to study along with a child or grandchild preparing to read from Torah for the first time? All are welcome!

Together with Rabbi Aaron and Cantor Kalix, this supportive cohort will study the prayers of Jewish tradition, keep working on their Hebrew, learn some trope (Torah chanting), and prepare a D’var Torah before leading a service in the Fall of 2024. The only prerequisite is the ability to decode Hebrew (readily recognize the letters and vowel sounds and begin stringing them together into syllables).

It’s not too late to sign up before the course begins! Read more and sign up to join this cohort here.
